RESTAURANT

GENERAL INFORMATION

Opened in early 2022, NEW WAVE by DA VITTORIO is the first museum restaurant brought by China's leading art institution UCCA Group. It is also the second restaurant by the Michelin-three-starred Italian restaurant DA VITTORIO in Asia.

The naming of the restaurant is inspired by the opening exhibition "85 New Wave: The Birth of Chinese Contemporary Art" held at UCCA Center for Contemporary Art in Beijing in 2007. The '85 New Wave was one of the most important art movements of China's 20th century art history, and a milestone that marked the beginning of a new era during which Chinese contemporary art became fully integrated into the international perspective.

For the Cerea family of DA VITTORIO Group, the arrival of NEW WAVE by DA VITTORIO at UCCA Edge marks their first endeavour into museum restaurants. At the same time, NEW WAVE by DA VITTORIO is another new venture of the Cerea family in Asia, following the success of DA VITTORIO SHANGHAI.

DA VITTORIO BISTROT

“

In recent years, many of the world’s leading museums have made the restaurant an integral part of the museum experience. Museum restaurants not only offer food and drinks, but have become places for joyful encounters and collision of ideas. Simultaneously, culinary and winemaking are increasingly seen as new art forms, and chefs and winemakers the artists of their respective fields.

– Mr. Philip Tinari, Director and CEO of UCCA Center for Contemporary Art

“

We have always believed that culinary is a form of art, a collision of flavours and aesthetics that connects and resonates with different people and cultures. At NEW WAVE, we are taking a younger, livelier and more casual approach while conveying the essence of Italian cuisine. In addition to some of DA VITTORIO’s signature dishes, we are also offering a wide range of new regional Italian dishes that will capture the taste buds and emotions of diners.

NEW WAVE CONCEPT

The birth of NEW WAVE by DA VITTORIO merges the museum and fine dining experience, where authentic, quality Italian cuisine is offered in the same arena that houses world-class artworks and exhibitions. A multi-sensory journey combining gastronomy, artistic design and spatial aesthetics is thereby created – a perfect display of contemporary urban living in China.

THE MANAGEMENT TEAM

The NEW WAVE by DA VITTORIO team is led by Executive Chef Francesco Bonvini, with Restaurant Manager Levi Fu overseeing day-to-day operations. The professional team also includes Sous Chefs Nicoló Rotella, Piero Feng, Assistant Manager Ada Zhang, Sommelier Camilla Mora and Bar Manager Fabio Sajeve.

THE CUISINE

The menu of NEW WAVE by DA VITTORIO is designed and managed by Francesco Bonvini, former Chef de Cuisine at DA VITTORIO SHANGHAI, under the supervision of the executive chefs of DA VITTORIO Italy, Chicco and Bobo Cerea. NEW WAVE continues the Cerea family's long-standing pursuit of "homemade flavours". Authentic Italian cuisine with a modern twist meets attentive service under a sophisticated yet relaxing ambience – NEW WAVE pioneers a new generation of casual fine dining in Shanghai.

WINE COLLECTION

NEW WAVE has also curated a specialist wine list of nearly 300 Italian and global wines from prestigious estates as well as niche wine regions. A wine encyclopaedia is also put together for diners to browse through in between their meal and wine tasting.

COCKTAIL BAR

In collaboration with UCCA Edge, the cocktail bar at NEW WAVE by DA VITTRIO has an even deeper connection with the artworld. Unfolding the cocktail menu specially designed as a parchment scroll, a list of cocktails is presented alongside the timeline of a brief art history. Bar manager Fabio Sajeve draws inspirations from masterpieces from Leonardo da Vinci, Pablo Picasso and Salvador Dalí, turning artworks into original cocktails, a stunning blend of fine art and art of mixing drinks, bringing our sophisticated guests an unique experience which extends the aesthetic enjoyment from the eyes to the taste buds. Just like our seasonal menu at the main restaurant, whenever UCCA Edge presents a new exhibition, a new cocktail will be created accordingly, enriching the museum visit by an immersive drink and interactive experience.

INTERIOR

Located on the third floor of the museum with a glasshouse terrace, the interior design of NEW WAVE by DA VITTORIO is conducted by Linehouse studio to convey an artistic atmosphere through the collision, transition and reconstruction of different shapes and textures. Arched mirrors are installed in the restaurant to create a dramatic visual effect that adds depth and dimension to the space. Meanwhile, ceiling hangings made of special fabric are used to construct light and cloud-like layers. The confrontation between contrasting textures and elements: soft and hard, smooth and coarse, orderly and disorderly, solid and transparent, acts as a catalyst for the senses, and injects an element of surprise as guests enter the dining space.
